Zhou receives the 2019 Emerging Scientist Award from the Aerosol Society

Dr. Tony Zhou, Assistant Professor of Industrial and Physical Pharmacy, is the recipient of the Emerging Scientist Award from The Aerosol Society in UK.

The Aerosol Society has been in existence for over 30 years. It is one of the largest scientific, non-profit organization aimed at extending knowledge and supporting the study of airborne particles. Drug Delivery to the Lungs Conference is recognized as one of the key international meetings in aerosol medicines. The conference attracts a range of attendees from scientists, academics, clinicians, regulators and industrial experts specializing in all aspects of developing medicines for inhalation.
